You are concerned about anti-social behaviour (ASB) in Moston Street.

We did:

Local officers have increased high-visibility patrols in the Moston Street area and have addressed the suspects involved. They have had their details recorded by officers and have been suitably warned. If they should ignore the warning then their parents could be spoken with and they could receive an acceptable behaviour contract (ABC).

Your local officer, PC 5373 Julie Clarke is leaving the area as a local officer to take up a new role within the force as an investigation officer.

We would like to introduce a new Neighbourhood Police Officer, PC 893 Julie Pointon who will be your new area officer from Monday 28 November.

PC Pointon has been a regular officer with Staffordshire Police since 2001, after being a Special Constable for a year before that. PC Pointon has been a response officer in both Longton and Hanley and is looking forward to her new role as one of the local officers in your area.

Freeze out opportunist thieves

Police are urging drivers to take simple crime prevention measures to deter would-be thieves:

ensure your vehicle is securely locked, including passenger doors and sun roof, and that alarms or immobilisers are switched on take your sat nav with you remembering to remove the cradle and wipe any sucker marks off the dashboard or windscreen, leaving the cradle in place tells the crooks that the sat nav might be in the glove box or boot park in a garage if you have one or park under street lights if possible never leave your keys in the ignition whilst warming your vehicle up in cold weather or as you pop into a shop.
