

10 December 2024

FOI Ref 17554

Request - You asked us the following:

REQUEST 1:

Can you provide information on how many officers Staffordshire Police has, investigating child abuse at this current time? Of those officers, how many are trained detectives?

REQUEST 2:

Can you provide information on how many officers Staffordshire Police had, investigating child abuse in 2014? Of those officers, how many were trained detectives? [If known]

We received your request on 05/12/2024 and have processed this under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

Staffordshire Police's response to your enquiry is as follows:

Staffordshire Police holds/does not hold the requested information.

- REQUEST 1:
Can you provide information on how many officers Staffordshire Police has, investigating child abuse at this current time? Of those officers, how many are trained detectives? – Disclosed, investigating child abuse falls within the PPU Child Department. As at 30th November 2024, there were 205 Police Officers based within that Department, of which 56 were Detectives.
- REQUEST 2:
Can you provide information on how many officers Staffordshire Police had, investigating child abuse in 2014? Of those officers, how many were trained detectives? [If known] – No information held.

Please note that for data relating to 2014, it is not possible to provide a direct comparison between the number of officers investigating child abuse due to internal restructuring.

Please note that this data has been provided to the best of our ability, subject to the limitation of current recording protocols and systems/software.

Every effort is made to ensure that the data presented is accurate and complete. However, it is important to note that this has been extracted from multiple sources, developed for specific policing purposes, for which data extraction methods have not been specifically designed to directly correlate with the terminology of this request. Therefore, the data presented is subject to the inaccuracies and idiosyncrasies inherent in any large-scale recording system.

As a consequence, care should be taken in the interpretation and presentation of this data, so as to not misrepresent the whole or any part of the data disclosed.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Staffordshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing within two months of the date of receipt of this email, and should be addressed to:

foi@staffordshire.police.uk

Or by Post to:

Central Disclosure Unit
Staffordshire Police HQ
PO Box 3167
Stafford
ST16 9JZ

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Central Disclosure Unit within two months of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Central Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within 20 working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:
