

21 November 2024

FOI Ref 17376

Request - You asked us the following:

How much has Staffordshire Police spent so far on updating the crown in its badges from St.Edward's Crown to the Tudor Crown as a result of the accession of King Charles in 2022?

How much has been budgeted to complete this update?

And when is it expected that the Tudor Crown will have fully replaced St.Edward's Crown?

We received your request on 17/10/2024 and have processed this under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

Staffordshire Police's response to your enquiry is as follows:

Staffordshire Police holds some of the requested information.

- 1. How much has Staffordshire Police spent so far on updating the crown in its badges from St.Edward's Crown to the Tudor Crown as a result of the accession of King Charles in 2022? - Disclosed, the majority of the assets we have updated have been digital (websites, social media, digital leaflets / posters) at no cost to the force. Likewise, the cost to replace the various crowns on the HQ site was £1,230.29.
- 2. How much has been budgeted to complete this update? – No information held.
- 3. And when is it expected that the Tudor Crown will have fully replaced St.Edward's Crown? – No information held.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Staffordshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing within two months of the date of receipt of this email, and should be addressed to:

foi@staffordshire.police.uk

Or by Post to:

Central Disclosure Unit

Staffordshire Police HQ
PO Box 3167
Stafford
ST16 9JZ

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Central Disclosure Unit within two months of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Central Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within 20 working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF
