

30 June 2025

FOI Ref 21454

Request - You asked us the following:

I am writing to request the following under the Freedom of Information Act:

1. Is it a standard provision or requirement in contracts with third-party providers of relevant services (e.g. domestic abuse services, victim support), for them to use the DASH risk assessment checklist as part of their service?
2. Is it a standard provision or requirement in contracts with third-party providers of relevant services, for them to use the DARA risk assessment checklist?
3. Please provide any other information that may provide helpful context
4. Is it standard practice for your frontline staff to use the DASH checklist
5. Is it standard practice for your frontline staff to use the DARA checklist

If the answer to any of the above is more complicated than a "yes/no", please provide a short explanation. If you are able to provide part but not all of the information requested, please do so, rather than rejecting the whole request.

If you are encountering practical difficulties with complying with this request, please contact me as soon as possible (in line with your section 16 duty to advise and assist requesters) so that we can discuss the matter and if necessary I can modify the request.

Please can you acknowledge receipt of this request.

We received your request on 11/06/2025 and have processed this under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

Staffordshire Police's response to your enquiry is as follows:

Staffordshire Police holds some of the requested information.

- 1. Is it a standard provision or requirement in contracts with third-party providers of relevant services (e.g. domestic abuse services, victim support), for them to use the DASH risk assessment checklist as part of their service? – Disclosed, whilst the use of the 'DASH' risk assessment checklist is not explicitly required as a standard provision in our contracts with third parties, our tender documents however do explicitly require the use of a nationally recognised risk assessment.
- 2. Is it a standard provision or requirement in contracts with third-party providers of relevant services, for them to use the DARA risk assessment checklist? – Disclosed, whilst the use of the 'DARA' risk assessment checklist is not explicitly required as a standard provision in our contracts with third parties, our tender documents however do explicitly require the use of a nationally recognised risk assessment.
- 3. Please provide any other information that may provide helpful context – No information held.
- 4. Is it standard practice for your frontline staff to use the DASH checklist – Disclosed, yes.

- 5. Is it standard practice for your frontline staff to use the DARA checklist - Disclosed, no.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from Staffordshire Police, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing within two months of the date of receipt of this email, and should be addressed to:

foi@staffordshire.police.uk

Or by Post to:

Central Disclosure Unit
Staffordshire Police HQ
PO Box 3167
Stafford
ST16 9JZ

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Central Disclosure Unit within two months of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing. The review will be conducted by another Decision Maker who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Central Disclosure Unit will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within 20 working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

STAFFORDSHIRE

The independent Decision Maker will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, taking into account the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Decision maker will reply to the complainant with the result of the review. If the complainant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following details:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
SK9 5AF
