

20 November 2025

FOI Ref 22107

Request - You asked us the following:

Please provide the following for the period 1st January 2025 - 12th November 2025.

The number of arrests for burglary offences where the custody record lists the individual's occupation as 'locksmith', 'mobile locksmith', or 'key-cutter'.

We received your request on 12/11/2025 and have processed this under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

Staffordshire Police's response to your enquiry is as follows:

In accordance with Section 17(1) of the Freedom of Information Act, this letter represents a refusal notice for this particular request.

The following exemption has been applied:

- Section 12(1) where the cost of compliance exceeds the appropriate limit.

Section 12(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the prescribed limit'.

The above information has been withheld for the following reasons:

There is no method by which we can readily retrieve information from our systems to answer this request. Although there is an occupation field on our crime recording system it is not compulsory to complete therefore there are a lot of blank fields. For the time period requested, there have been 378 arrests for burglary offences, in order to ascertain whether the person arrested was a 'locksmith', 'mobile locksmith', or 'key-cutter' the record for each offence would require a manual review. To extract this data would therefore require a very labour-intensive manual trawl through each record.

From dip sampling, it has been estimated that it would take approximately 4 minutes to review each record to answer this request, this would equate to over 25 hours. To achieve this task would therefore exceed the 18-hour time and cost threshold of the FOI Act by some considerable margin.

Advice and assistance

Section 16 of the Act places an obligation upon the Authority to provide advice and assistance, in order to comply with this obligation please see below.

In order to refine your request data could be supplied for a shorter time period i.e. from 1st August 2025 until 12th November 2025.

Please be advised that all Freedom of Information request responses are published on the Staffordshire Police website although personal details are not included.
