FOI Ref 23305

Request - You asked Staffordshire Police (SP) the following:

Thank you for your e-mail. Sorry for the late reply.

For question 3 I am after an idea of the annual cost on average to keep your police dogs, this would include things like food, vets and housing. It doesn't need to include staff costs.

Original FOI 23091

Could you provide me with the following information, please?

1. As of 1st May 2026, how many serving police dogs do you currently have?
2. As of 1st May 2026, how many police dog handlers do you currently have?
- 3 What is the yearly expenditure for all police dogs?
4. Do your police dog handlers undertake canine first aid training? If so, how often are they provided a refresher course?

SP received your request on 25/08/2026 and have processed this under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

SP's response to your enquiry is as follows:

SP holds the requested information.

Could you provide me with the following information, please?

1. As of 1st May 2026, how many serving police dogs do you currently have? – Disclosed, 27.
2. As of 1st May 2026, how many police dog handlers do you currently have? – Disclosed, 22.
- 3 What is the yearly expenditure for all police dogs? – Disclosed, £61,780.

Please note, Consumables includes items such as poo bags and cleaning materials. Does not include toys, training materials, leash and harnesses. Veterinary fees may contain expenditure relating to the treatment of public dogs, where it is not possible to accurately identify and remove these costs from the total charges.

4. Do your police dog handlers undertake canine first aid training? If so, how often are they provided a refresher course? – Disclosed, Canine first aid training is refreshed every 3 years.

This data has been provided to the best of the ability of SP, subject to the limitation of current recording protocols and systems and software.

Every effort is made to ensure that the figures presented are accurate and complete. However, it is important to note that data is extracted from multiple sources, developed for specific policing purposes, for which data extraction methods have not been specifically designed to directly correlate with the terminology of this request. Therefore, the data presented is subject to the inaccuracies and idiosyncrasies inherent in any large-scale recording system. Consequently, care should be taken in the interpretation and presentation of this data, to not misrepresent the whole or any part of the data disclosed.

All Freedom of Information request responses are published on the SP website although personal details are not included.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from SP, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing within two months of the date of receipt of this email, and should be addressed to:

IAT@staffordshire.police.uk

Or by Post to:

Information Access Team
Staffordshire Police HQ
PO Box 3167
Stafford
ST16 9JZ

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Information Access Team within two months of the SP response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing. The review will be conducted by a supervisor who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Information Access Team will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within twenty working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to forty working days.

The independent supervisor will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, considering the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the independent supervisor will reply to the appellant with the result of the review. If the appellant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information

STAFFORDSHIRE
POLICE

Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following link:
