

29 September 2026

FOI Ref 23440

Request - You asked Staffordshire Police (SP) the following:

Please provide me the following data in a machine-readable spreadsheet (XLSX or ODS file format):

1. The number of crime reports recorded by your force in which the crime report text, or modus operandi report, mentions "Strava", broken down by calendar year for 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025, and 2026 to September 1. If possible, please further break this down by crime category. Please use the following columns in a sheet: police force name, year, total number of crime reports, followed by columns with counts for each crime category where at least one has been recorded (e.g. 'Stalking and Harassment').

2. Please provide a redacted copy of the free text crime reports for these offences recorded by your force from March 1, 2026 to September 1, 2026. Please use the following columns in a spreadsheet separate to the answer for question 1: force name, report date, crime category, redacted copy of free text.

SP received your request on 28/09/2026 and have processed this under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

SP's response to your enquiry is as follows:

SP holds the requested information.

1. The number of crime reports recorded by your force in which the crime report text, or modus operandi report, mentions "Strava", broken down by calendar year for 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025, and 2026 to September 1. The following exemption has been applied:

In accordance with Section 17(1) of the Freedom of Information Act, this letter represents a refusal notice for parts of this request.

- Section 40(2) Personal Information

Section 40(2) is an absolute exemption which means that there is no need to quantify the harm that may arise from the disclosure; neither is it subject to a public interest test.

To release personal or third-party information held by SP, would breach the data protection principles; namely –

- Data is lawfully and fairly processed.
- Processed in line with an individual's rights.
- Data is secure.

Personal and third-party information cannot be released under the Freedom of Information Act.

Disclosure under Freedom of Information is a release of information to the world in general and not an individual applicant.

Please be advised that all Freedom of Information request responses are published on the SP website although personal details are not included.

Freedom of Information Request Appeals Procedure

1. Who Can Ask for a Review

Any person who has requested information from SP, which has been dealt with under the Freedom of Information Act, is entitled to complain and request an internal review, if they are dissatisfied with the response they received.

2. How to Request a Review

Requests for review of a Freedom of Information request must be made in writing within two months of the date of receipt of this email, and should be addressed to:

IAT@staffordshire.police.uk

The reference number, date of the request and details of why the review is being requested must be included. Requests for review should be brought to the attention of the Information Access Team within two months of the Force's response to the original FOI request.

3. Review Procedure

Receipt of a request for review will be acknowledged in writing. The review will be conducted by a supervisor who is independent from the original Decision Maker. The Information Access Team will set a target date for a response. The response will be made as soon as is practicable with the intention to complete the review within 20 working days. In more complex cases the review may take up to 40 working days.

The independent Supervisor will conduct a review of the handling of the request for information and of decisions taken, including decisions taken about where the public interest lies in respect of exempt information where applicable. The review enables a re-evaluation of the case, considering the matters raised by the complaint.

4. Conclusion of the Appeal

On completion of the review the Independent Supervisor will reply to the appellant with the result of the review. If the appellant is still dissatisfied following the review they should contact the Information

STAFFORDSHIRE
POLICE

Commissioner to make an appeal. The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following link:
